Having made known their circumstances to the family, it was proposed by the mistress of the house, that they should instantly array themselves in female apparel, in case the troopers should call, to try if by this means they could elude the observation of the soldiers. The proposal was agreed to, and the three men were speedily decked in womens clothes. The troopers came leisurely along the heath, and at length arrived at Auchengrouch. The men in female guise were busily employed, as if they had been domestic servants, and the gudewife was occasionally raising her voice in a loud and imperious manner, giving her orders to one in this way and to another in that, when the dragoons dismounted. You seem to be rather noisy this morning, good woman, said the commander of the party, as he drew near to enter the dwelling. It may be I have reason, replied she; my servants must obey my orders, as your soldiers must obey yours, and when they fail they must abide reproof. . In this way she succeeded in diverting the attention of the troopers; no discovery was made, and with grateful hearts they saw the soldiers again on the moor at a distance from the house. In the house of Knockalloch, on Craigdarroch Water there was a dairy of rather peculiar construction, which afforded a secure hiding-place; it was a small apartment behind a bed, toward the back part of the...
