By Sylvia Mendoza

Sylvia Mendoza. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 418 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 1.1in.From fiery superstars like singing sensation Selena, who blazed new trails in pop culture, to little-known heroes like the Mirabal Sisters, who died for their country and whose brave actions changed history, The Book of Latina Women: 150 Vidas of Passion, Strength and Success, spotlights 150 amazing and influential Latinas. These fabulous women come from all periods in history and all walks of life. Theyve impacted the world with their contributions and accomplishments in history, science, politics, education, the arts, activism, sports, news, and entertainment--past and present. . . Eva Peron ruled Argentina with flamboyance and an iron fist. France Anne Cordova was the youngest person to ever hold the Chief Scientist position at NASA Luisa Moreno organized civil rights groups to fight deplorable and unfair working conditions in sweatshops, factories, and agricultural fields in the 1930s. Sor Juana Ines de la Cruz was the first feminist intellectual of the New World. Rosemary Rosie Casals lobbied for equal rights for women on the tennis courts as a seven-time Wimbledon Womens Champion. Botanist Ynez Mexias first expedition was at the age of 57--in the 1950s. Throughout history,...
