Busy in other lines of literary work, Mrs. Bayne has neglected to make any collection of her poems. Her sons and daughter have gathered these from The New England Magazine, The Independent, The Youths Companion, St. Nicholas, Springfield Republican and Hartford Courant, into this little volume which they present to their mother as a birthday gift, knowing also that it will give pleasure to her many friends. My dear Mrs. Bayne: I was very glad to hear from you, in reply to my request, and to know that you are still doing good work.
