Not illustrated. 1900 Excerpt: .letter was brought in on the 14th July by a Roman Catholic convert, sent out on the 10th with a letter to Tien-tsin. He reported that he had been captured, taken to a Boxer temple and beaten (of the latter he exhibited proofs) and his letter discovered and taken away from him; that he had then been conducted to Jung Lu s house, where he was well treated; and finally, after three days detention, sent back with a letter to myself, to which he was to take an answer next day, making his exit by the sluice gate, as he had entered. With him there was sent in a suspicious-looking person whom the convert said lie believed to be a spy. The letter contained an invitation to the foreign Ministers to transfer themselves, their families, and their staffs to the Tsung-li Yamen for safety. As it...
