David S. Kaufman, of Texas: In the Congress of the United States, February 1st, and 3d, 1851 Not long after he had finished his collegiate studies, he removed to Natchez, Mississippi, where he read law in the office of that accomplished gentleman, lawyer, statesman, and soldier, John A. Quitman, whose confidence and esteem he always enjoyed. In 1835, Mr. Kaufman settled in Natchitoches, Louisiana, in the practice of his profession, and obtained a fair share of business, although surrounded by able and older members of the bar. Indeed, few men had naturally more of the elements which ensure success in any pursuit to which he might have directed his attention. That brilliant event, the battle of San Jacinto, turned westward the attention of the young and the adventurous to the star that had just arisen above the political horizon. In the Spring of 1837 Mr. Kaufman emigrated to Nacogdoches, in the Republic of Texas. In 1838 he had already so far won the confidence of the people among whom he had established his home, that he was elected a member of the Texan Congress. He was twice re-elected, and twice chosen Speaker of the House, an office which he discharged with much ability. Indeed, few men in this House understood better the rules of its proceeding, and the general parliamentary law. In 1843, having removed to Sabine county, he was elected to the Senate, and from the Committee on Foreign Relations, in 1844, presented a report in favor of annexation, characterized by much force and strength of argument. He took an active and zealous part in favor of...
