Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Spectator, Vol. 1 of 3: A New Edition Reproducing the Original Text Both as First Issued and as Corrected by Its Authors; With Introduction, Notes, and Index When Richard Steele, in number 555 of his Spectator, signed its last paper and named those who had most helped him to keep up the spirit of so long and approved a performance, he gave chief honour to one who had on his page, as in his heart, no name but Friend. This was the gentleman of whose assistance I formerly boasted in the Preface and concluding Leaf of my Toilers. I am indeed much more proud of his long-continued Friendship, than I should be of the fame of being thought the author of any writings which he himself is capable of producing. I remember when I finished the Tender Husband, I told him there was nothing I so ardently wished, as that we might some time or other publish a work, written by us both, which should bear the name of The Monument, in Memory of...
