Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from When I Was Czar: A Romance My Dear Miller, - Your letter, which was as short as old Canfield s temper, reached me in Berlin as I was starting for here. I m off to Khiva, this wise. You ll remember my old yam about the Czar having saved my life years ago in a pig-sticking do in Germany - he shoved or kicked me into a bush just in the nick of time when the brute made his rush - and how we then discovered the strong resemblance between us? Well, it s still true, and things have been happening in consequence. I ran across Burnaby s book about Khiva a while back and resolved to go there. He says that three Tartars can eat a whole sheep at a single meal, and I want to see if it s true. Any old tag s good enough excuse for a globe-trotter, so I wrote to the Czar, reminded him of the pig incident, and asked permission to go East. As a result, I m here as his guest; we ve had a chat over the old time, and I m to go where, when and how I like all over his dominions. He s an awfully decent sort, and I m in for a real good time. But it s been a queer show. There s a woman in it of course - and a glorious woman too. A tall, queenly creature, as handsome as a Greek, with the free carriage of one of our own American girls. I saw her on the train, or rather she saw me and seemed particularly interested in...
