Natives of the place, descendants of former residents, citizens of adjoining towns, and from the cities of New York, New Haven, Bridgeport and Norwalk, ministers, lawyers, physicians and teachers filled the church to its utmost limits. The benevolent hands of the ladies of the parish had adorned the church and the pulpit with wreaths and flowers, which were much admired. On account of the sickness of Hon. Abram Wakeman, of New York City, Judge Thomas Bradford Dwight, of Philadelphia, was called to take the chair and act as president of the day. After a few pleasant remarks from Judge Dwight, he called upon the choir to sing a hymn in the old tune of Majesty. Then the congregation were led in an appropriate prayer by the Rev. Marcus Burr, of Rockville Centre, Long Island, N....
